

DUNCAN TURNER (SC)

Duncan Turner has been a member of the Board of Directors at Cedarwood School since 2012. Within six months of joining the Board, he was elected Chairperson, a position he has held for 12 years.

Professionally, Duncan is an advocate practicing at the Johannesburg Bar, specialising in general corporate and commercial law. He is also a CEDR accredited mediator and serves as an arbitrator.

During his leadership, Duncan has played a pivotal role in enhancing the school's systems and policies. He has been instrumental in establishing and implementing robust governance and financial structures. Under Duncan's guidance, Cedarwood College, in particular has seen significant growth and development.

Known for his excellent leadership skills, Duncan excels in assigning portfolios and providing board members the necessary space to be involved and grow personally and professionally.

Duncan is married and has three daughters. His twins, Jessica and Kimberley, are now in their early 20s and pursuing their studies. Kimberley attended Cedarwood School before moving to Beaulieu College. His youngest daughter, Shannon, is currently in Grade 10 at St. Annes's College.
