

NERONA RAMKISSOON

Nerona Ramkissoon, a Chartered Accountant, has been a vital member of our board since 2015, serving as our financial representative. She completed her articles at PwC and currently consults to various companies.

Nerona brings a wealth of expertise and meticulous oversight to all financial matters, ensuring the highest standards of fiscal responsibility and integrity. Amongst other contributions, she played a crucial role in investigating financial packages and providing valuable advice and implementations that have significantly benefited the school's financial health.

Beyond her professional role, Nerona is married and has 2 children. Her daughter is a Gr 12 student at St Peter's College and her son is in Gr 10 at Cedarwood School. Nerona's hobbies include reading, spending time with family and exercising.